FREE HERBS RIDDIM... A SMOKING NEW 10"

A brand new 10" with a green message, featuring vocals from Afrikan Simba, Marga, Prince Livijah & Ras Echo.. plus an earth shaking Dub Mix from the legendary Russ Disciples Reality Shock Records is a UK based artist stable / record label going from strength to strength. Working closely with several of the UK's leading Reggae artists, Reality Shock has many exciting projects in the pipeline. This summer Reality Shock brings you 'Free Herbs', a brand new 10" vinyl featuring three blazing vocal cuts from four UK roots heavyweights & a dub mix by none other than the legendary Russ Disciples..

Last month saw the release of Unity Sound veteran Mikey Murka's album 'In The Name of Love', also coming soon is 'Reality Shock Vol 1' the compilation album featuring all of the biggest tunes from the Reality Shock camp to date. Stay tuned to www.realityshock.com for news on these & many more releases to come.

Combination Style

Prince Livijah (Deejay) & Ras Echo (Singer) have both been involved in Reggae music from an early age. Known for being resident toasters with the world renowned Jah Youth Sound-system, together they have toured extensively performing to packed audiences across the globe. Prince Livijah has recently released singles such as 'African Love' on Tigerman Records, 'Fi Real' on Mungo's Hifi label Scotch Bonnet & 'Outlook is Bleak' on UK based Messenger Music & is currently working on his debut album 'Glorious Morning' featuring productions from Tigerman Records, Gussie P, Mafia & Fluxy & Reality Shock Records. Echo recently returned from an extended visit to Jamaica & finally after years of mashing up stages together, teamed up with Livijah in the studio to bring you the anthem 'Here Comes The Herbsman' on the Free Herbs Riddim. Stay tuned to www.myspace.com/princelivijah & www.myspace.com/jahyouth.

Simba, the Lion of Afrika

Nigerian born Afrikan Simba is one of the UK's top Roots deejays. Over the years he has recorded with the likes of Zion Train, Dub Judah & Jah Warrior, and runs his own record label 'Ayamba', based in Jamaica. Simba has also worked with many top sounds including Channel One, Zulu Priest, Aba Shanti, & even Jah Shaka. Now a member of the Reality Shock camp, 'Simba has several big releases in store. Stay tuned to www.myspace.com/afrikansimba

Marga under Chronic

Marga Has been involved in the music business for many years, not only as an artist but also as a manager to acts such as FYA who saw chart success & signed to Def Jam. Over the years Marga has recorded with the likes of Jazwad, Ruff Neck, Mungos Hifi & Reality Shock to name a few & is known for his big 90's hit 'Walk Like a Jamaican'. More recently Marga has had singles out such as 'Bun Dem Down' on Scotch Bonnet & 'The Right Road' international selling 10" from the French based label Control Tower Records. Marga's cut on Free Herbs riddim 'The Chronic' guarantees to put a smile on your face. Stay tuned to www.myspace.com/margadread

Russ D at the controls!

Disciples (Russ D) UK Reggae and Dub producer, started out on the Roots scene in 1986 producing for Jah Shaka's label 'King Of The Zulu Tribe'. They soon set up their own label 'Boom Shaka Lacka' & eventually formed a second label Backyard Movements in '96 for Reggae vocal productions.

Russ is now collaborating with Reality Shock on several projects, the first of which to see plastic is the 'Free Herbs' riddim, produced by Kris Kemist, which has truly received the 'Backyard' treatment! Currently Russ is very active, continuing to work so keep an eye out for more collabs & check out the Disciples website at www.disciplesblm.co.uk
